A Turkish Love Affair.—The modern laws of Cos do not reward female chastity, but they discountenance, in a very singular manner, any cruelty in females towards their admirers. While Dr. Clark was on that island, an instance occurred in which the fatal termination of a love affair occasioned a trial for what the Mohammedan lawyers called "homicide by an intermediate cause." The case was as follows: A young man desperately in love with a girl of Stanchio, eagerly sought to marry her, but his proposals were rejected. In consequence of this rejection he bought some poison and destroyed himself. The Turkish police instantly arrested the father of the young woman, as the cause, by implication, of the man's death. Under the fifth species of homicide, he became therefore amenable for this act of suicide. When the cause came before the magistrate, it was urged literally by the accusers that if he, the accused, had not had a daughter the deceased would not have fallen in love; consequently he would not have been disappointed; consequently he would not have swallowed poison; consequently he would not have died. But he, the accused, had a daughter, and the deceased had fallen in love, and had been disappointed, and had swallowed poison, and had died. Upon all these counts he was called upon to pay the price of the young man's life; and this being fixed at the sum of eighty piastres, it was accordingly exacted.

Dark Rooms.—American women have a strange mania for dark rooms, but hear what Florence Nightingale, in her notes of nursing, says on the subject:

A dark house is almost always an unhealthy house, always an ill aired house, always a dirty house. Want of light stops growth, and promises scrofula, rickets, &c., among children. People lose their health in a dark house, and if they get ill, they cannot get well again in it. Three out of many negligences and ignorances, in managing the health of houses generally, I will here mention as specimens: First—That the female head in charge of any building does not think it necessary to visit every hole and corner of it every day. How can she expect those who are under her to be more careful to maintain her house in a healthy condition than she who is in charge of it? Second—That it is not considered essential to air, to sun, and to clean rooms while uninhabited; which is simply ignoring the first elementary notion of sanitary things, and laying the ground ready for all kinds of disease. Third—That the door and one window are considered enough to air a room. Don't imagine that, if you who are in charge don't look to those things yourself, those under you will be more careful than you are. It appears as if the part of the mistress was to complain of her servants, and to accept their excuse, not to show them how there need be neither complaints made nor excuses. Such authority ought, in every housekeeper who has hitherto clung to dark rooms, to open the window of a correct understanding on the subject.

A Midsummer Holiday.—Kingsley thus declares: "There is no pleasure that I have experienced like a child's midsummer holiday—the time, I mean, when two or three of us used to go away up the brook and take our dinners with us, and come home at night, tired, dirty, happy, scratched beyond recognition, with a greasy nosegay, three little trout, and one shoe, the other having been used as a boat till it had gone down with all hands out of soundings. Depend upon it, a man never experiences such pleasure or grief after fourteen as he does before, unless in some cases in his first love making, when the sensation is new to him."

Hans Excited.—Several gentlemen were lately discussing the alarming prevalence of the crime of wife desertion, women eloping with other men, &c., when a Teuton, who had been listening with great attention, stept up, and in an excited manner said: "If my wife runs away mit another man's wife, I will shake him out of her preeches, if she been mine own fader, mein Got!"

A cooper, finding considerable difficulty in keeping one of the heads of a cask he was finishing in its place, put his son inside to hold the head up. After completing the work to his satisfaction, he was astonished to find his boy inside the cask, and without a possibility of getting out, except through the bung-hole.

A little boy of some five years or thereabouts, says the Boston Transcript, who had been the happy possessor of a gold dollar, the gift of some friend, rose in his place in one of our public school-rooms, the day after the recent fall in the price of gold, and queried—"Pleathe ma'am, may I go out and thell my dollar? Pa thayth gold ith down!" He was allowed to go out.

LAWS OF OREGON.

Acts passed at the Third Regular Session of the Legislative Assembly.

An Act to prevent Indians and half-breeds from unlawfully running at large, and to punish white persons for enticing them from the Reservation.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: It shall be unlawful for any person to entice, induce, or persuade any Indian, or half-breed who habitually resides with Indians, to leave the Indian Reservation or territory where such Indian or half-breed belongs, or to harbor or conceal such Indian or half-breed, or to countenance or encourage, or in any way assist such Indian or half-breed to escape from, elude, or evade the agent or superintendent having charge of the tribe, unless such Indian or half-breed is absent by the written consent of the superintendent or agent aforesaid.

Sec. 2. Any person who is guilty of a violation of the first section of this act shall be liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars for the first offense, and not less than fifty nor more than one hundred for each subsequent offense, to be recovered in any action for debt before any circuit or county judge or justice of the peace in this State.

Sec. 3. All fines collected under this act shall be paid one-half to the person making the complaint and the other half to the common school fund of the county where the offense was committed: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with hunting rights reserved to Indians by treaties with the United States.

Sec. 4. In order that the white settlements may be promptly relieved of the presence of vagabond Indians, this act shall be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved Oct. 21, 1864.

Proclamation.

[illegible]

Now, therefore, I, Addison C. Gibbs, [illegible] State of Oregon, [illegible]

[illegible]

Attest: Samuel E. May, Secretary of State.

The following [illegible] recruiting [illegible] will be as follows, until further notice:

RECRUITING.

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry, Oregon Volunteers. [illegible] commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into [illegible] district [illegible] the same [illegible] company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to the officers [illegible] that they shall [illegible] their respective companies [illegible] within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established at some central point in each district, [illegible] will be [illegible] to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest-bearing bonds, payable in gold to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1863-4, page 486.)

The wages [illegible], in addition, are [illegible] besides clothing, equipments, rations, and [illegible] furnished by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page 622.)

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated and paid as privates.

The following is the estimated

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with commendable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. Under it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of patriotism and of State local and personal pride requires that you commence promptly and prosecute vigorously the business of obtaining volunteers. The officers of the State feeling the most earnest desire that the entire State should avoid a draft, appeal to the patriotic citizens of your county, through you who are their official and legal and natural representatives. As guardians of their rights and of their honor, it is incumbent upon you to respond to this appeal by earnest and successful work. Call to your aid the assistance of the active and influential citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and, if possible, induce him to realize that he has an immediate and personal interest in the success of your efforts. If necessary, call meetings in your school districts and bring the matter home to every inhabitant. Funds will be needed to pay expenses, not provided for by law. Let subscriptions be circulated in each county for that purpose, & preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor upon whom the requisition is made, expects, and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

[illegible] The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.

etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENERAL DEBILITY, ETC.

The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable discovery of the age. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

and in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the Reproductive Functions. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Who has not been broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness; the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once braced up, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The desponding, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom, or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. Not till it reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING,

For the above diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY it and you will never give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

and all diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

The proofs of its efficacy are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such a peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of Diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest efforts of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup are incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Rev. JOHN PIERPONT, THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER, PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M. D., JAMES C. DUNN,

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the Medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by combination in a way before unknown; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica.

IODINE WATER.

Iodine water is the most important discovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effect upon the human system. It is brought to the

HEART,

LIVER, KIDNEYS,

DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and it [illegible] have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and is used and recommended to practitioners. ("American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 76.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC,

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr. H. Anders & Co., Physicians and Chemists, New York.

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,

Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

Its action is expectorant, alterative, sudorific, sedative, diaphoretic and diuretic, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS' TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED NOT to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no Opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

News of To Day

A private [illegible] writes that the troops were well [illegible] and furnished with sixty days supplies [illegible] for what destination they were [illegible].

Grant's Army [illegible] supplied with a bountiful Thanksgiving Dinner.

It seems [illegible] that Gen. Gillam has been defeated at Bull's Gap with a loss of [illegible] four hundred prisoners [illegible] Corse has abandoned Rome [illegible] after destroying bridges, &c. that might prove of value to the rebels. Richmond paper [illegible] the report of capture of Decatur, Ala. and eight thousand federal prisoners is [illegible].

[illegible] officer [illegible] escaped from Columbus, Ga. says the condition of the prisoners there is dreadful. A great number are almost naked and they are [illegible] rations for days. Those who will take the oath of allegiance and enlist are well treated. An exchange of prisoners [illegible] and will soon be effected.

It is rumored that Early has gone into winter quarters, but it seems more probable that he has left a force at Lynchburg and marched with the main part of his army of 25,000 men, to assist Bragg who anticipates an attack from Sherman upon Charleston. His army is said to be in a wretched condition. Thinking Sheridan had been weakened, he not long since made an attack on him, but learning his mistake, he retreated again at the double quick.

The French troops have abandoned Matamoras. Brownsville, Texas [illegible] by a few rebels and can be taken by our forces at any time.

The French Minister has [illegible] offered the services of his Government to facilitate negotiations with the South. The matter is under consideration.

Rumor says the [illegible] will be immediately given up, on the demand of the Brazilian Government.

Our Taxes and our Finances

Under this head, our opposition cotemporaries are preaching frequent and long discourses. Reminding the voters of Oregon that under the good old Democratic rule of Governor Whiteaker the State expenses were only forty thousand dollars per annum, and pretending that at the present time under "Republican rule" the expenditures will reach one hundred thousand dollars per annum.

They say our State expenses are at least double what they were under Democratic rule, or would be under "Democratic rule" again. Let us figure gentlemen and see what portion of the expenses of the State you would dispense with. Figures, they say, won't lie and we challenge you to a test.

The greatest item of State expenditures now is connected with the care of the insane and idiotic poor. It is supposed that thirty thousand dollars will be required to pay for the proper care and treatment of the unfortunates whom the State has taken under its guardianship and we candidly ask the Democratic press. Did you oppose, or do you oppose, this act of humanity on the part of the State? At any time have Democratic Representatives in the Legislature been opposed to the State so doing? Did not those Representatives in the last Assembly vote willingly for the appropriation and approve the manner in which the insane are cared for?

This little item alone—$30,000, voted for and approved by the Democratic party as it most certainly was—conflicts strongly with your statement.

Under Whiteaker $40,000, according to your own words were expended, add this $30,000, and the sum of $70,000 is arrived at, which you must stultify yourselves considerably or else acknowledge as a reasonable sum to be expended by the State to-day.

This amount ($70,000) we understood the Secretary of State to say would be his estimate of the annual expenditure for two years to come and their claim that it will reach $100,000 is merely the customary Democratic argument—a fabrication.

As the State grows, (all the Copperheads' hopes are based on its rapid growth and [illegible]) the expenses very naturally increase in proportion. There is an increase of Legislators as provided for in the Constitution. There is an additional Supreme Judge and more incidental expenses but the Democracy cannot say that a penny of this extra expense is chargeable to the Union party as a party. [illegible] the expenses of the State must grow [illegible] the State must not.

Now we pretend to say that save in the care of the insane and idiotic the population and wealth of the State have increased faster than the taxes have.

But there are additional expenses to be paid the coming year, and we are not the least disposed to deny it. Let us briefly recount them. The laws are to be bound and published after being properly compiled. This will cost considerable, but no one will deny that it is necessary. Hunting for a needle in a hay mow is much like looking up points of law at this time from old volumes and session laws. This compilation and publication will cost perhaps $6,000 or $7,000 more, and is indispensably necessary. What do you say about that gentlemen?

There are appropriations that we are perfectly willing our adversaries should [illegible], and we will assume the responsibility of them, and urge them before the people. One is that [illegible] to pay volunteers who will enlist to save the Copps from being drafted? the sum of $[illegible] each. Another [illegible] Cavalry to pay them $[illegible] per month [illegible] the time they have been in the service. It is estimated that the interest on [illegible] in case enlistments [illegible] will be about $[illegible] per annum. We are willing [illegible] what they can legitimately [illegible] of any of the above named objects [illegible] us by indulging in [illegible] and in particulars. Let them specify items and we will quote in [illegible].

Let them [illegible] the Insane Asylum, [illegible] printing expenditure [illegible] lands [illegible] as now provided for [illegible] relief bill for those who [illegible] out of service and we will fight with them upon the [illegible] until our [illegible] will [illegible]. But [illegible] for and [illegible] fair fight and darkness [illegible] and fire [illegible].

On [illegible] the [illegible] expenses [illegible] Democratic [illegible] each per annum. But [illegible] power [illegible] to the Penitentiary [illegible] pay it [illegible] the Penitentiary which [illegible] to run away [illegible].

VICTORIA ITEMS.—A man named [illegible] had been severely injured by a blast while working in Cariboo.

A boat containing eight Cariboo men was dashed to pieces on a rock near Bridge river on Fraser river, and a Norwegian and Cornishman were drowned in a whirlpool.

There were to be races at Victoria on the Prince of Wales' birthday.

Customs receipts for the week ending October 29th, were near fifty thousand dollars.

The charges against the American Consul were completely refuted.

The House of Assembly is charged by the [illegible] with idleness.

The Victorians had heard from our late election and have it that Oregon gave 20,000 and California 60,000 majorities for Lincoln. Rather steep that.

No steamer will hereafter be allowed to leave Vancouver Island ports on the Sabbath day.

Five thousand dollars reward is now offered for the arrest of the McDonald bank robbers.

The schooner [illegible] from Whidby's Island ran on the rocks at Launel or Dead Man's Point, and started some of her timbers, and her cargo was lightered.

The Legislative Assembly were taking steps to procure a dredging machine for Victoria harbor.

The Superintendent of Police at Victoria is charged with bribery.

The Governor of Vancouver's Island had visited the theatre, and his visit and previous absence is explained by the following extract from a private letter received from Victoria:

The theatre here has been open for over a month but rather slimly attended. The [illegible] were not allowed to sit in all parts of the house as they wished to and they went to the Governor with a long memorial [illegible] their grievances but he replied that he could not grant them any relief. He was entirely opposed to making such invidious distinctions between different classes of Her Majesty's loyal subjects and would not encourage the theatre while such a regulation existed. The Governor has only been out one night since, and as goes the governor, so goes the aristocracy, and the theatre has been little patronized by that class.

A few nights since a performance was given under the patronage of the [illegible] the Assembly.

We suggest to the [illegible] that the Governor [illegible] bring his [illegible] once in a while [illegible] with him and the rest of the aristocracy.

Multnomah County Free School.—The Primary Department

[illegible] this article is not [illegible] given [illegible] the [illegible] schools [illegible] plan of the [illegible].

Indeed the plan of the school ought to give form to the building in which it is kept. [illegible] the interest of it. We [illegible] have [illegible] the little ones [illegible] They have in many cases no back to rest the weary [illegible] often his feet cannot touch the floor and they hang in pain over the edge of the seat. If he [illegible] he must get up [illegible] a switch will perhaps startle him. His seat is often inclined [illegible] off. In a word the building committee [illegible] study well the wants of the little ones. At home they have nice little chairs and stools and to [illegible] they are often changing position. Their muscles are soft, requiring each rest. The result in school is to make them tired and uneasy. A child will set as still as a grown person but he cannot do long. Nature keeps him on the move [illegible] but a short time.

In his early school days we must [illegible] Would you have the Primary Department quiet we must have [illegible] inclining with backs sloping [illegible] chair at home. Your must have a desk for the little boy's books as well as for the larger boys. He can [illegible] in that also. Why should [illegible] hold his book up all the time, while others can lay theirs down? His small primer is as heavy for him, as the larger books for the larger boy. But you [illegible] the little boys and girls in the front seat without a desk with a high perpendicular back. Lying down and turning every way to be comfortable they fail to be so and they care for nothing so much as [illegible].

The little ones are often too cold. They suffer [illegible] older ones. They are near the floor and cold currents of air sweep over them continually. They get chilled when the teacher thinks it warm enough. Stoves are set up high and they [illegible] their feet up to warm them. At other times I have seen little children kept in seat upon which the sun blazed in keeping them in a fever. [illegible] usually wear thinner shoes or boots than [illegible] and even thinner clothing while [illegible] less [illegible] keep out the rain and the mud. They sit all day with wet feet in a wet [illegible]. School directors and teachers must attend first and most wisely and constantly to the comfort of the primary pupil. [illegible] so that they may have proper teachers and the right teaching.

G. H. ATKINSON,
Superintendent of Common Schools.

We gather the following items from the [illegible] Statesman:

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—By the [illegible] from New Orleans the [illegible] we learn that the French troops [illegible] Matamoras having [illegible] Brownsville [illegible].

The reported capture of a large number of [illegible] the rebels who were endeavoring to cross the Mississippi at Vidalia to supply Hood is confirmed.

The [illegible] Hilton Head letter gives a list of nine [illegible] officers who escaped from the rebel prison at Columbia. After 12 days hardships they reached our lines. They state the privates at Columbia are in [illegible] worse off than the officers. Many have nothing to cover their nakedness but [illegible] sticks. Dozens who crawl out of the prison pen, every night are shot by the guards. Many have been killed in this manner. Those who escape to the woods are hunted by dogs and torn and mangled frightfully. Captain Fuller escaped on 5th October, was hunted by bloodhounds, who tore him so horribly that he died in a few days. There are about 20,000 prisoners in the pen and hundreds without pants or shoes. For days together all rations are withheld from the prisoners [illegible] food to those who will take the oath of allegiance and join the Southern army. In this way many take the oath of allegiance to the Southern Confederacy.

The [illegible] Shenandoah dispatch of the 18th says: All quiet since Early fell back to Fisher's Hill. Deserters say Early has but 15,000 men under his command. All the reinforcements received since the battle of Cedar Creek consist of returned convalescents and small squads who were away on detached service. When Early recrossed the [illegible] Cedar Creek on the 11th, and after the cavalry were so handsomely whipped by Merritt's cavalry they refused to stop any longer and Early was obliged to order them back to the works on Fisher's Hill. An [illegible] dispatch of the 17th says: Everything quiet. A cavalry reconnoissance as far as Mount Jackson failed to discover the presence of any rebels except a few stragglers. Residents of the country say they were told by rebel officers that their army would [illegible] winter quarters at Stanton [illegible] the valley this winter. The rebel rank and file are said to be wretchedly furnished with provisions and [illegible]. The [illegible] of the 16th says: There is no doubt but Grant planned the movement from Atlanta towards Mobile. We learn that [illegible] transports laden with supplies has arrived at Pensacola. [illegible] that Hood has [illegible] the plan, and that Sherman is at Bridgeport, Alabama.

The Washington Republican of the 15th says: Information has been received that Lovell and Early's forces have retreated up the valley hotly pursued by Sheridan's. The opinion of the officers in Sheridan's army is that the enemy will leave a force at Lynchburg to hold it and send the main force to aid Bragg, who anticipates the advance of Sherman on Charleston.

A Washington special says: It is rumored here that the [illegible] will be given up promptly in [illegible] demand for her by Brazil.

Fair of the Christian Commission.—There is at the present time no more worthy object of interest to the benevolent than the Christian Commission. This Society, in its workings, strives to supply the soldier not only with religious instruction through the medium of religious instruction, tracts and books, but it is entering the field to vie with the Sanitary Commission in care for the wounded in the hospitals, and in supplying the physical need of the suffering both of friends and foes. The ladies of the Christian Commission of Portland intend to hold a Fair on the 20th and 21st of December, for the benefit of the Society. Some of them are already at work in the good cause, and the intention is to furnish the public with many and varied objects of interest besides the usual and inevitable display of fancy articles. Tableaux are projected, an Old Folks Concert, a New England Kitchen, and other attractions that will well repay the casual observer for his attendance, and we trust they will realize enough to afford substantial aid to so good a cause.

Trial of Bledsoe.—The case of the State of Oregon vs. Madison Bledsoe, on the charge of murder, came up for trial in the Circuit Court yesterday morning. Mr. E. W. Hodgkinson District Attorney, and Hon. George H. Williams appeared for the prosecution, and Messrs. J. H. Mitchell, L. F. Mosher and J. F. McCoy appeared for the defendant. Some forty persons were drawn as Jurors before the twelve were empanneled, consuming a greater part of the day, when finally the following were sworn: Andrew Tullen, Lot Ellis, Wm. Birch, Nathan Robinson, J. Hileman, Martin Gillihan, J. D. Dickinson, John Terwilliger, Wm. Love, Stephen Roberts, Washington Allen, E. Askern. Five witnesses were examined, and the case will be resumed to-day. The Court House was crowded from the commencement of the questioning of the jurors until the close of the day's proceeding, and much interest seemed to be manifested in the progress of the trial.

The Old Gymnasium.—The old Gymnasium on Second street, has been converted into very comfortable quarters, as a place of rendezvous for the newly enlisted volunteers. We gave the "boys" a call yesterday, and found them enjoying their new life with a relish. As soon as a recruit has been mastered into the service he is taken to the rendezvous, where he is furnished with a suit of Uncle Sam's clothing, and then he takes his place in the squad for drill a certain length of time every day, beginning with the rudiments of soldierly tactics. There are three such squads at present, two of which were going through with the evolutions while we were there. The rooms of the place are pleasantly warmed, and divided off into apartments for comfort including a culinary department, and the occupants subsist on the most wholesome food in market. Their beds, blankets, etc., are all new, and quite comfortable, rendering their situation very agreeable.

Blockaded at Last.—In the year 1851 First street received an addition to its improvements by the construction of a log bridge across the gulch between Jefferson and Columbia streets, which entitled it the most continuous and best line of travel in the city. For several years it continued to be such, until one fatal night in the fall of a later period the accumulated waters deprived the logs of the ample earth work upon which they rested, and the bridge changed its base. This arrangement spoiled First street, but as the wreck remained in the gully sufficiently safe for light wagons, and hundreds have annually passed over it, but the recent private improvements of Mr. Harbaugh have effectually blockaded that part of the city to vehicles of every kind, not excepting the diminutive child's-carriage. We hope to see First street an active thoroughfare once more ere a year shall pass. The business for nearly a mile, and the great number of private residents demand that it should be so. We are one of 'em.

Personal.—Our whilom friend T. J. Butler, Esq., who has been "making history," and some money, too, we guess, for over a year past, as the Editor of the pioneer sheet in the Gem of the Mountains, the Boise News, called upon us last evening. Messrs. Butler Bros. having disposed of their old materials to the spirits of Democracy, who became exhilirated over their late ascendancy in Idaho, T. J. visits his old stamping ground in California, and, will remain here until the departure of the next steamer for San Francisco. We can assure Tehama county people that Butler is sound for the Union yet, notwithstanding the fires of Democracy have gobbled up his "print shop."

Medical Institute.—A Medical Institute is shortly to be established in this city, as a branch under the Charter of the Pacific University. The medical profession of the city will represent the full faculty, and the Institute be based upon a reliable scale, with privileges for conferring diplomas, etc. Several Lectures have already been given as the beginning, with great interest, and seem to be well appreciated by those who have attended them. The meetings are held in the offices of two or three of our leading physicians alternately, at present, but we understand they have it in contemplation to erect a fine edifice for the purpose, which may possibly be commenced within a short time.

Mammoth Potatoes.—Mr. A. Seeley, residing within three miles of this city, has placed upon our table an "article" which is the best treatise upon Agriculture in Oregon, that can be produced—consisting of two mammoth potatoes. They are of the Blue Kidney and Red varieties, and the pair weighs four pounds. The soil in which they were grown is an invaluable mine to the owner, but there are "claims" in abundance, just as good throughout the State to be improved.

Circuit Court.—After a jury had been obtained in Court yesterday, Judge Shattuck announced that all other jurors would be, and remain discharged until Friday. Nothing other, of importance, was done, aside from the Bledsoe case. In our report yesterday morning we stated that judgment had been rendered in the case of Garrison vs. City of Portland. This was an error, it referred to the verdict of the jury.

Recorder's Court.—William Chaney was the only unfortunate, who found his way by the assistance of an officer, from reveling in a drunken and disorderly manner, to the Police Court, and his case was disposed of by a commitment to jail for two days where he will sober off.

Hard on Suspicious Characters.—The Victoria Chronicle of the 3d inst., says: "Three men, supposed to be highwaymen, from Oregon, are held in custody for evidence as to character." A similar treatment of some noted individuals at present in our city, might work very beneficially to the country at large.

Theatrical.—The Theatre was well attended again last evening. The plays were well put upon the stage and the personations handsomely executed. Mrs. Hayne as Camille, was equal to the best efforts of this favorite actress and talented lady.

Windy and Rough.—The steamer Wilson G. Hunt was detained a short time on her usual round, yesterday, owing to the prevalence of high winds on the Columbia river.

Council Meeting.—In consequence of Thursday being appointed a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, the regular meeting of the Common Council for this week, will be held at the Chamber to-night.

Express Favors.—Wells, Fargo & Co. have placed us under obligations for valuable Express favors.

A man in Appleton, Minnesota, recently perceived flames issuing from his well. His neighbors gathered to put out the fire, when it was discovered that an oil spring had burnt through the wall, and becoming ignited was blazing away. The fire was extinguished, and the man is beginning to "realize."

LAWS OF OREGON.

Acts passed at the Third Regular Session of the Legislative Assembly.

AN ACT to prevent the adulteration of Gold Dust.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: That if any person shall mix or adulterate any Gold Dust, with any metal or compound of less value than such Gold Dust, with intent to pass or sell, or in any way dispose of such Gold Dust so mixed or adulterated, as genuine; or shall cause the same to be sold, passed, or otherwise disposed of as genuine and pure, such person shall, on conviction of such offense, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than one year nor more than five years.

Sec. 2. If any person shall have any Gold Dust in his possession, mixed or adulterated, as described in section one of this act, knowing the same to be so mixed or adulterated, with intent to pass, or sell, or in anywise dispose of the same as pure and genuine, or to cause the same to be sold, passed, or in any way disposed of as pure and genuine Gold Dust, such person upon conviction of such offence, shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than one year nor more than five years.

Sec. 3. If any person shall pass, sell, or in any way dispose of any Gold Dust, mixed or adulterated, as described in section one of this act, or shall cause the same to be passed, sold, or otherwise disposed of, or shall attempt to pass, sell, or in any way dispose of such dust, knowing the same to be so mixed or adulterated; such person shall upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not less than one year nor more than five years.

Sec. 4. Inasmuch as there is no law in this State, punishing the mixture or adulteration of Gold Dust, this act shall take effect from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved, Oct. 22d, 1864.

AN ACT relating to noxious Weeds.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. That it shall be the duty of the supervisors of the several counties in this State, in addition to the duties hitherto prescribed by law, to cause the destruction in the manner which to said road supervisors shall seem most effective, of the weed known as the Dagger Cockle Burr, when such weed shall be found growing upon the public highways and county roads of this State.

Sec. 2. The road supervisors shall have the power to warn out laborers upon the public highways, for the extirpation of said weed, as in cases of repairs of such highways.

Sec. 3. Any road supervisor neglecting to perform his duty under the provisions of this act, shall be liable to a fine of not more than twenty-five nor less than five dollars, to be recovered to the use of the county, before any justice of the peace, by suit in the name of the county.

Sec. 4. The owners or occupants of lands shall carefully extirpate such weed, when the same is found growing upon the lands of such owner or occupant, and if such owner or occupant shall fail or refuse to destroy such weed after being notified by the road supervisor, or any other person, of the existence of such weed upon his land, then it shall be the duty of the road supervisors to cause said weed to be destroyed upon said land at the expense of the owner thereof; the expenses of such labor in destroying such weed, to be recovered by suit in the name of the county before any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of all municipal corporations and county authorities in this State, to provide for the extermination of the said Dagger Cockle Burr within the limits of such corporation, or on the vacant lands within such county; and any city or town corporation in this State neglecting or refusing to comply with the provisions of this section, shall be liable to a forfeiture to the State of a sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit in the name of the State, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the several District Attorneys of this State, to prosecute all suits brought under the provisions of Sec. 5, within their respective counties, and such Attorneys shall be entitled to a fee of twenty-five dollars for every Judgment rendered in favor of the State in such suits, and shall be entitled to a fee of ten dollars for every suit brought under the provisions of this act, when judgment is rendered against the State.

Sec 7. In order that the extinction of the noxious weed referred to in this act shall be accomplished before the ensuing winter, this act shall be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved, October 21st, 1864.

A Greenback Case!
HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large that
Jacob Mayer
Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the CITY OF PARIS STORE,
Making less than two-fifths of the coin amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants. G. W. VAUGHN.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.
THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and secretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.
Invigorate the System.
Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?
Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters
Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.
Strengthen the System.
The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in
Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.
A Word to the Aged!
In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged
Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.
As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.
For Females;
Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. Oysters! Oysters!
Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.
THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the oyster in its raw state by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquor is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.
The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by each arrival of clippers from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.

Seventeen Seventy-Six.

THE ALTAR OF LIBERTY.

The following little story has been floating about; it has nothing in it to please the fancy; no rhymes, no well turned phrases; but it is rich in the right spirit, a spirit we verily believe that belongs as much to 1864 as it did to 1776.

We print it for the soldiers', the women's and the children's sake, and we beg them all to read it, and think how little they of the Revolutionary days had to fight for, and for how much it is ours to do little. The little plant has become a mighty tree, and we have all sung under its shade.

Let us all do something—be it much or little—cheerfully, heartily, that we may say with little Grace: "There's been something put on the altar of Liberty to-day."

Dick sprang, and had the table out in a trice, with an abundant clatter, and put up the leaves with quite an air. His mother, with the silent and gliding motion characteristic of her, quietly took out the table-cloth and spread it, and began to set the cups and saucers in order, and to put on the plates and knives, while Aunt Hitty bustled about the tea.

"I'll be glad when the war's over, for one reason," said she; "I'm pretty much tired of drinking sage tea, for one, I know."

"Well, Aunt Hitty, how you scolded that pedlar last week, that brought along that real tea!"

"To be sure I did. Suppose I'll be taking any of his old tea, bought of the British? Fling every tea cup in his face first."

"Well, mother," said Dick, "I never exactly understood what it was about the tea, and why the Boston folks threw it all overboard."

"Because there was an unlawful tax laid upon it that the Government had no right to lay. It wasn't much in itself; but it was a part of a whole system of oppressive meanness, designed to take away our rights, and make us slaves of a foreign power."

"Slaves!" said Dick, drawing himself up proudly; "father a slave!"

"But they would not be slaves! They saw clearly where it would end, and they would not begin to submit to it ever so little," said the mother.

"I wouldn't, if I was they," said Dick.

"Besides," said his mother, drawing him toward her, "it wasn't alone for themselves they did it. This is a great country, and it will be greater and greater; and it is very important that we shall have free and equal laws, because it will by and by be so great. This country, if it is a free one, will be the light of the world—a city set upon a hill, that cannot be hid; and all the oppressed and distressed from other countries shall come here to enjoy equal rights and freedom. This, dear boy, is why your father and uncles have gone to fight, and why they do stay and fight, though God knows what they suffer"—and the large blue eyes of the mother were full of tears; yet a strong, bright beam of exultation and pride shone through those tears.

"Well, well, Roxy, you can always talk, every body knows," said Aunt Hitty, who had been the least attentive listener of this little patriotic harangue; "but you see, the tea is getting cold, and yonder I see the sleigh is at the door, and John's come; so let us set up our chairs for supper."

The chairs were soon set up; when John, the eldest son, a lad of about fifteen entered with a letter. There was one general exclamation, and stretching of the hand towards it. John threw it into the mother's lap; the tea-table was forgotten, and the tea kettle sang unnoticed by the fire, as all hands crowded about mother's chair to hear the news. It was from Capt. Ward, then in the American army at Valley Forge. Mrs. Ward ran it over hastily and then read it aloud. A few words we may extract:

"There is still," it said, "much suffering. I have given away every pair of stockings you sent me, reserving to myself only one; for I will not be one whit better off than the poorest soldier who fights for his country. Poor fellows! it makes my heart ache sometimes to go round among them, and see them with worn clothes and torn shoes, and often bleeding feet, yet cheerful and hopeful, and every one willing to do his very best. Often the spirit of discouragement comes over them, particularly at night, when weary, cold and hungry, they turn into their comfortless huts, on the snowy ground. Then sometimes there is a thought of home, and warm fires, and some speak of giving up; but next morning out comes Washington's general orders, a little note, but it's wonderful the good it does! and then all resolve to hold up, come what may. There are commissioners going all through the country to pick up supplies. If they come to you, I need not tell you what to do. I know all that will be in your hearts."

"There, children, see what your father suffers," said the mother, "and what it costs these poor soldiers to gain our liberty."

"Ephraim Scranton told me that the commissioners had come as far as the Three Mile Tavern, and that he rather 'spected they'd be along here to-night," said John, as he was helping round the baked beans to the silent company at the tea table.

"To-night? do tell, now," said Aunt Hitty. "Then it's time we were stirring. Let's see what can be got."

"I'll send my new overcoat for one," said John. "That old one isn't cut up yet; is it Aunt Hitty?"

"No," said Aunt Hitty; "I was laying out to cut it over next Wednesday, when Deacon Smith will be here to do the tailoring."

"There's the south room," said Aunt Hitty, musing; "that bed has two of old Aunt Ward's blankets upon it, and the great blue quilts, and two comforters upon it. Then mother's and my room—two pairs, four comforters, two quilts, the best chamber has got——"

"Oh, Aunt Hitty, send all that's in the best chamber. If any company comes we can make it up from off our beds," said John. "I can send a blanket or two from my bed, I know; can't but just turn over in it, so many clothes on now."

"Aunt Hitty, take a blanket off our bed," said Grace and Dick at once.

"Well, well, we'll see," said Aunt Hitty, bustling up.

Up rose grandmamma, with great earnestness now, and on going to the next room, and opening a large cedar-wood chest, returned, bearing in her arms two large snow-white blankets, which she deposited flat on the table, just as Aunt Hitty was whisking off the table cloth.

"Mercy! mother, what are you going to do?" said Aunt Hitty.

"There," said she, "I spun these, every thread of 'em, when my name was Mary Evans. These were my wedding blankets, made of real nice wool, and worked with roses in all the corners. I've got them to give!" and grandmamma stroked and smoothed the blankets, and patted them down with great pride and tenderness. It was evident she was giving something very near her heart, but she never faltered.

"La, mother, there's no need of that," said Aunt Hetty. "Use them on your own bed, and send the blankets off from that; they are just as good for soldiers."

"No, I shan't," said the old lady, waxing a little warm; "'tain't a bit too good for 'em. I'll send the very best I've got before they shall suffer. Send 'em the best," [illegible] oratorical.

They were interrupted by a knock at the door, and two men entered and announced themselves as commissioners to search out supplies for [illegible]. Now [illegible] thickens. Aunt Hitty flew in every direction, through the entry, [illegible] room, down cellar, up chamber—her cap border on end—with [illegible], followed by John, Dick and Grace, who eagerly bore [illegible] the supplies [illegible] out, while Mrs. Ward busied herself in quietly sorting and arranging, in the best possible traveling order, the various contributions that were precipitately launched on the kitchen floor.

Aunt Hitty soon appeared in the kitchen with an armful of stockings, which, kneeling on the floor, she began counting and laying out.

"There," said she, laying down a large bundle on some blankets, "that leaves just two apiece all round."

"La!" said John, "what's the use of saving two pair for me? I can do with one pair as well as father."

"Sure enough," said his mother; "besides, I can knit you another pair in a day."

"And I can do with one pair," said Dick.

"Yours will be too small, young master, I guess," said one of the commissioners.

"No," said Dick. "I have got a large foot of my own; and Aunt Hitty will always knit my stockings an inch too long, cause she says I'll grow so. See here—these will do;" and the boy shook his head triumphantly.

"And mine, too," said Grace, nothing doubting, having been busy all the time in pulling off her little stockings.

"Here," she said to the man who was packing the things into a wide-mouth sack; "here's mine," and her large blue eyes looked earnestly through her tears.

Aunt Hitty flew at her. "Good land! the child's crazy. Don't think the men could wear your stockings. Take them away."

Grace looked around with an air of utter desolation, and began to cry. "I wanted to give them something," said she. "I'd rather go bare-footed on the snow all day than not send them anything."

"Give me the stockings, my child," said the old soldier. "There, I'll take 'em, and show 'em to the soldiers, and tell 'em what the little girl said that sent them. And it will do them as much good as if they could wear them. They've got little girls at home, too." Grace fell on her mother's bosom, completely happy, and Aunt Hitty only muttered:

"Everybody does spoil that child, and no wonder, neither!"

Soon the old sleigh drove off from the brown house, tightly packed and heavily loaded; and Grace and Dick were creeping up to their little beds.

"There's been something put on the altar of Liberty to-night, hasn't there, Dick?"

"Yes, indeed," said Dick; and, looking up to his mother, he said: "But, mother, what did you give?"

"I?" said the mother, musingly.

"Yes, you, mother. What have you given to the country?"

"All that I have, dears," said she, laying her hands gently on their heads, "my husband and my children!"

Proclamation.

STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
October 24th, 1864.

WHEREAS, I have received a requisition from Major General Irwin McDowell, commanding the Department of the Pacific, acting under the authority of the War Department, for one regiment of Infantry, in addition to the volunteers now in the service of the United States, to aid in the enforcement of the laws, suppress insurrection and invasion, and to chastise hostile Indians in this military district;

Now, therefore, I, Addison C. Gibbs, Governor of the State of Oregon, and Commander-in-Chief of the Militia thereof, do hereby call upon the citizens of this State to organize themselves into companies sufficient to fill the foregoing requisition.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand,
[L.S.] and caused the Seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed. Done at Salem this 24th day of October,
A. D. 1864.
ADDISON C. GIBBS,
Governor of Oregon.

Attest: SAMUEL E. MAY, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated: The plan of recruiting and organizing the above force, will be as follows, until further notice:

RECRUITING.

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry, Oregon Volunteers. The field, staff and line officers will be commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts, according to the number of persons in each district liable to do military duty. When such district has furnished its quota of men, there will be no draft in the same under this call. Each district will furnish one company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to company officers, conditioned that they shall recruit their respective companies, and be ready to be mustered into the service, within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established at some central point in each district, and, if practicable, all recruits will be retained there until the company is filled and ready to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest-bearing bonds, payable in gold to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1863-4, page 186.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, equipments, rations, and allowances, furnished by the United States. (See statute 1863, page 662.)

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) first sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty-four (64) privates minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated and paid as privates.

The following is the estimated:

QUOTA OF MEN DUE FROM EACH COUNTY:

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with the most laudable promptitude every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. Under it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed promptly, and every consideration of [illegible] and personal pride [illegible] the patriotic citizens of your county [illegible]. The Governor upon whom the requisition is made expects, and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

LE DOYEN'S
SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK
—AND—
IODINE ALTERATIVE
FOR THE
CONSTITUTION.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This invaluable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS,
DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and improving the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient receives flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

[illegible] chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving Stone in the Bladder and organs of the kidneys, preventing gravel formation and derangement of the [illegible], irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

From the dusty hospital—the bloody battlefield—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain tops, distant valleys, and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands and thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

"RIPON, WIS., Sept. 16, 1864.

* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *

C. A. FLAUTT."

"SOUTH WASHINGTON, July 28, 1863.

* * * Our little boy, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $300 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.

EDWARD WOUNALL."

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, 57TH STREET,
New York, August 2, 1863.

"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully,

MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

"* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

"* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefitted by their use. Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"* * * I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y."

"* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C."

"* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the Kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y."

etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S.T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.
